The New Lawful You

Your emotions are the functional indicators of your true belief system at the moment.

They are not your identity.

They are your location.

Keys to Overcoming

1. Know the new lawful you is your true identity.
2. You will have to speak the truth to yourself.
3. Understand that the old self will try to enforce the old self system on the new you.
4. This is the process of the spiritual “you” growing into maturity. [From babes to adults]
5. Your awareness is the key to change.

Understanding The Language of Emotions

How to Recognize Location

Language of Emotions

Identity – Who are you?

Interpretation – What criteria did you use to discern this information?

Intent – How did you use this information?

Cognitive Dissonance

What is cognitive dissonance?

Cognitive – Conscious mental activities such as thinking, understanding, learning and remembering which includes knowing, perceiving, and judgments as opposed to emotional and willful actions. (awareness)

Dissonance – Lack of agreement especially inconsistency between the beliefs one holds or between ones actions and ones beliefs.

Law of Mimicry

You can't do what you don't know. You can only do what you've been taught, what you caught, or what's been demonstrated to you.

You learn by what you see and hear. All of your information that you have, came from outside of yourself. You learn this behavior by mimicking your mother while a baby.

Law of Agreement

Agreement is accepting information outside of yourself knowingly or unknowingly and integrating it into one's belief systems.

You consent by default when you don't know that you have the responsibility to discern the information presented to you. This is based on ones maturity level.

Law of Mimicry & Agreement

You become what you submit to knowingly or unknowingly and your behavior demonstrates your agreement with what you were taught, caught, or demonstrated.

Your emotions are a reflection of your learned belief system. This makes up your basic operating system and the 90% subconscious part of you

Awareness

Taking responsibility for your awareness

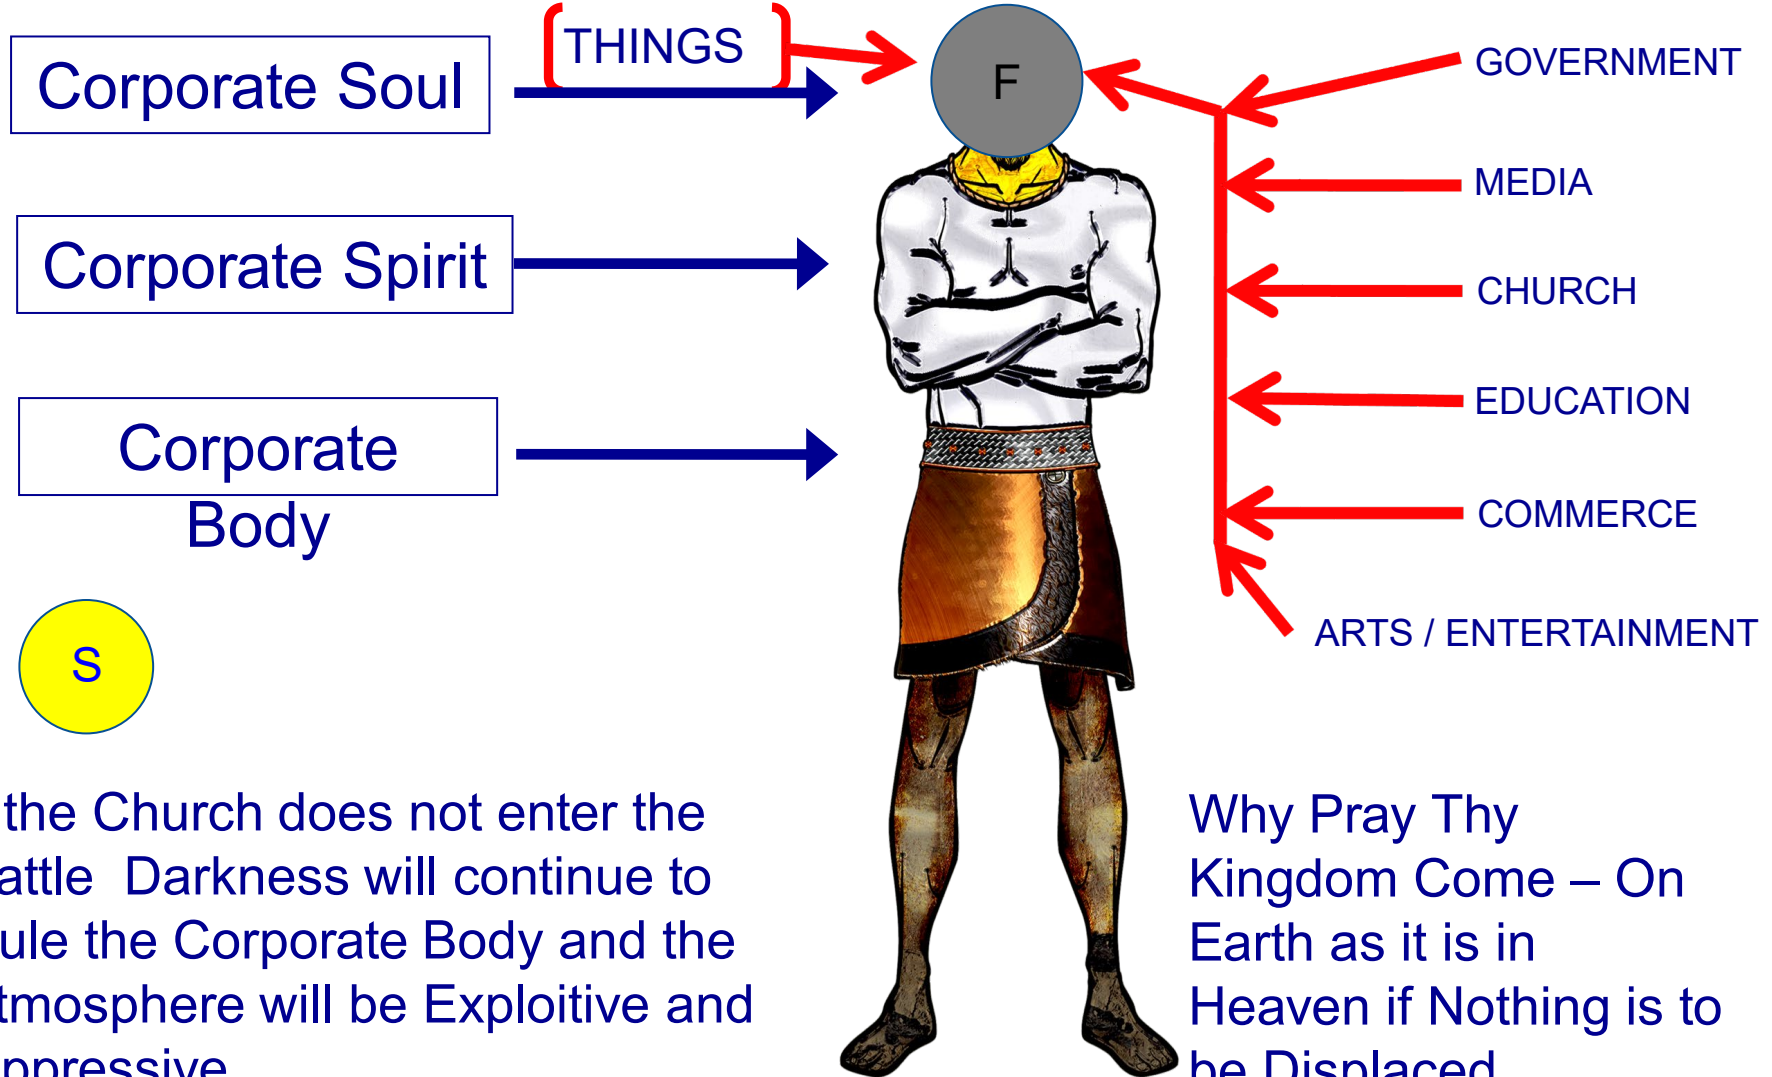

As you walk through this unlearning and relearning journey, you'll become aware of your core beliefs that will create an emotional reaction to new information.

This dissonance you feel is a normal process for change to happen. It's at these moments when you learn to accept information even though you may not understand it at that moment. You can still receive the information.

Discovering Who You Are

What is my true identity?

My true identity will be discovered as I take responsibility for putting off the false realities that became part of my programming and come into agreement with God's truth about who I am in Christ.

Spiritual Maturing Process

Father lays out this process in large time periods or ages. It's portrayed in the feast days and harvest cycles.

It's how He restores us from sin. Trains us by discipline. Prepares us for service.

Overwhelmed vs. Overcoming

Cognitive Resonance

Cognitive Resonance: Constantly choosing to live in agreement with what God says when your belief system is challenged by new truth.

Different Ages

Passover-Pentecost-Tabernacles (Booths)

These feast days represent time periods but they also represent the spiritual transformation of how Father restores us from our sinful state.

These feast days represent our justification, sanctification, and glorification.

The Jubilee

The Jubilee comes at the end of the age of ages. This is where all debts are canceled.

This is when Jesus Christ delivers the Kingdom to the Father.

This is the completion of the Great Restoration Story where all things are restored back to the Father and His Glory fills ALL things.

BIBLICAL DISCIPLESHIP

What is discipleship?

- Training people to walk by Spirit as Sons and Daughters.
- Teaching people to be responsible stewards of their gifts.
- It is training up someone to fulfill their God given talents with the understanding that they are necessary parts of the body of Christ. Without them functioning in their gifting, the rest of the body is diminished because they are not reflecting their part of the image of the Godhead to the body and the world.
- Helping people to learn to live from their Hearts.
- It is bringing people to maturity in Christ.
- Helping them to be ambassadors of Christ
